Dear Prospective Member,

Attached is the form for Application for Shares in the Murray Plains Meat Co-operative Limited (Co-op).

Please read the attached Co-op Rules and Disclosure Statement before completing the form.

When completing the form ensure the applicants details are correct. If purchasing in a company or trust also include the ACN or ABN. If application is made jointly, include both or all names.

The Board must approve new applications for membership and Directors use the following guidelines when making their decision.

1. Will the potential member/shareholder recognise and is prepared to respect and adhere to, philosophies and guidelines of the MPMC being the ethical and sustainable production and processing of livestock.
2. Are the processing requirements of the potential member/shareholder in line with the business plan of MPMC.
3. Will the potential member/shareholder be of benefit and not to the detriment of existing member/shareholders.

Please return the form via post or email, using the contact details above. The Board will notify you of their decision.

If your membership application is approved, an approval letter will be emailed and payment required to finalise your membership.

Total payment due would be $1,600, being $100.00 Application Fee and $1,500.00 Share Capital.

Once payment is made, share certificates will be issued.

If you have any questions in relation to the above, please do not hesitate to call or email.

Yours sincerely,
